Serving YOUR Interests

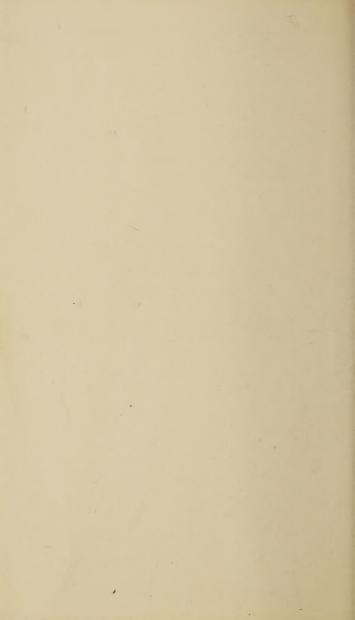

We would like to handle all of your insurance and bonding business. We believe, also, that it is to your interest to have us do so.

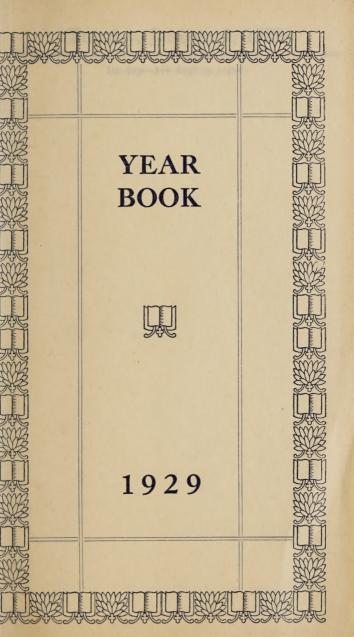

First, when you divide your business you divide responsibility, service and protection. In event of a loss you are, perhaps, subjected to inconvenience, indifferent service and, possibly, a partial or complete loss occasioned by lack of proper coverage

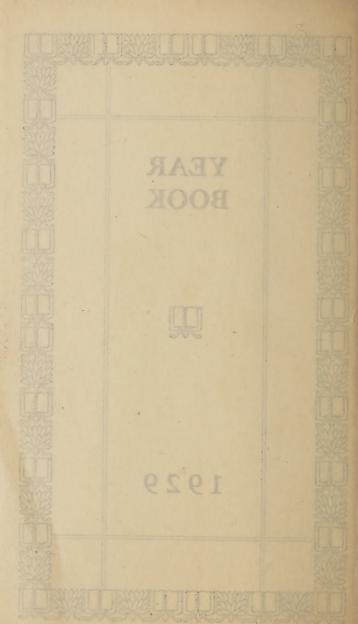

On the other hand, if your entire business is placed with us, we become familiar with your needs and have the full responsibility of safeguarding your interests. The result is a well balanced, well planned, comprehensive program of protection. This, in the long run, is the safest and most economical way to buy insurance and surety bonds.

Second, our facilities, through our connection with the National Casualty Company, are such that we are enabled to handle any business, large or small, quickly, competently and comprehensibly, at the lowest cost consistent with absolute protection.

May we give you detailed information? A phone call involves no obligation.

INSURANCE

Anyone who owns property, employs help, carries merchandise, operates an automobile, or who seeks protection for his family should carry some form of insurance. Regardless of the kind of insurance, see that you always carry sufficient; that your policy covers your requirements; and that you insure with chartered companies approved by your State Board. If you desire to make any change in your policy, notify the company in writing, and have said change incorporated in your policy by written endorsement of the company. Keep your policies in a leather holder in your safe deposit vault.

Fire.

Report loss immediately to your agent or direct to company.

Keep a record of your inventories, and see that they are up-to-date.

Increase insurance proportionately as your stock increases.

If there is a coinsurance clause in your policy, you should carry insurance equal to the amount of percentage specified in said policy. For example, if 80 percent, carry not less than $800 insurance for every $1000 stock. If the damage exceeds 80 percent of your stock, you suffer all the loss above that percentage; if, however, the loss is 80 percent or less, the company pays the full amount. If you do not carry insurance equal to the percentage specified in your policy, you become a coinsurer, and suffer proportionately with the company.

Workmen's Compensation & Public Liability.

The rates of these forms of insurance vary with the risks and hazards of your particular business. The premium is estimated on the amount of your payroll. In case of accident call Company's physician; if not available, administer medical relief to injured, and notify Company. The Company will reimburse you for any emergency outlay in such case. Make complete written report of accident and obtain names of witnesses.

Automobile.

Carry all forms if possible, such as Collision, Property Damage, Liability and Fire and Theft. By all means, carry Liability insurance. In case of accident, even if not through any act of yours, notify Company, send written detailed account of accident and names of witnesses if possible.

Life, Health & Accident.

If you have any regard for your family, see that they are well protected financially. Secure as much insurance as you can afford, even if you have to foregoluxuries, because it is an effective saving and a protection for those who are dear to you.
